Verjus "grüner Saft"

Weingut	Biologischer Weinbau Demeter Weingut Doris & Hager Matthias
Kategorie	Saft
Inhalt/Menge	0,2 l

Verjus (French: green juice) is a juice from unripe grapes that has been known since ancient times. It was a widely used spice and medicinal product in Europe during the Middle Ages, but was then replaced by the lemon and only recently rediscovered. The Verjus is ideal for marinating salads and fish, seasoning all types of food or as a refreshing drink sprayed with mineral water.
