Cuvée of Blaufränkisch and Zweigelt; at least half a year on the mash in the clay amphora, then for 18 months in the new 300 liter barrel; strictly limited - 400 bottles. Clear and firm, somewhat nutty blackberry scent with tobacco and slightly herbal notes, a little cherries, earthy traces and hints of leather and pencil wood. Tart-juicy, taut, still rather undeveloped fruit, yeasty and nutty aromas, smoke, tobacco, a little undergrowth and leather, peppery tones, moderate acid bite and lots of fine sandy tannin, lasting on the palate, has power but also freshness, good depth, clearly chalky and salty tones, also clayey hints, dark ethereal spiciness, initially rather aloof, but steadily gains juice and complexity with air, very good, firm, tart, still slightly drying finish. wine.plus 2025: excellent
