The Riesling Alte Reben 11 was read late. Due to the high maturity and the high sugar content, it happens that a barrel is not fermented. But it tasted so good with the rest of the sauce, that we decided to fill this barrel separately and to call it simply Riesling Old Vines Fruchtsüß. This is often with great things, they often arise by chance :-). The Riesling Old Vines Fruchtsüß shows an intense beautiful straw yellow in the glass. It smells of ripe apricots, which blend harmoniously with the typical Riesling acid and the Kamptaler mineralics. This wine can certainly compete with its competition from the Moselle.
