The Seeberg Veltliner 16 consists of 100% Grüner Veltliner grapes. After the harvest, there was a short maceration before it went to the press. After spontaneous fermentation, the wine was put into a large oak barrel where it had 1 year to mature and unfold before being bottled in September 2017. An after-ripening of 1-2 years is recommended or a decanting before opening is certainly good, as it unfolds its full splendor with a little air. The Seeberg Veltliner 16 is a great food companion to spicy, slightly spicy food.
